Atomic Energy Commission Of United Nations Is Considering Proposal

REPORT BARUCH SEEKS SHOWDOWN (BULLETIN)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 17 .- (INS) -Bernard M. Baruch, presidential advisor for the last generation, today demanded a showdown vote by the United Nations on his formula for prohibition of the atomic bomb and "vetoless" future control of atomic energy.

Baruch presented a take-itor-leave-it proposition to an open meeting of the atomic energy commission.

Bearing in mind that the United States developed this mass destruction weapon, and holds the secret of its composition, Baruch told the commission that the world must accept the American formula for future control and inspection. He said:

We have no pride of authorship. But we can not, in justice to our trust, accept changes in purpose. We have debated

Down At The Heels

Nothing gives more of a lift to a man's morale than a pair of new heels upon his shoes. Run down heels offset the effect of a new suit and hat. New heels give him confidence and more self respect.

Not that this is a commercial plug for the rubber heel industry. But we can't help thinking that the sidewalks of the city are some- which is the reason it takes an exthing in the nature of the heels of the body politic. When they are run down the city has about the same appearance as a man with his mittee. The president's order was neels run down.

A walk over the City of New Castle reveals the fact that all too the investigating committee, both many sidewalks are in bad repair. Some are cracked, some are broken, some are bulged up, and all of them are a hazard to the pedestrian returns of possible war profiteers and an eyesore to the visitor.

This is hardly the weather to talk about laying cement, of course. But comes the spring and it would be a fine thing for civic neatness if a versy has gone on inside the adminlot of householders would have their sidewalks repaired. The cost to istration over a tax return filed by the individual would be comparatively small but the improvement to one of the late President Roosethe appearance of our city streets would be large.

Labor Leader Rivalry Cause Of Many Strikes WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.

AN INFORMED and objective reporter who specializes in the laborunion field recently wrote that the real purpose of the campaign for higher wages which CIO's Mr. Philip Murray and his blatant young aide. Mr. Walter Reuther, have now launched is to regain the "leadership" which Mr. Lewis wrested from hem in his recent coal strike.

DURING that strike Mr. Murray had to play second fiddle to Mr. Lewis, whom he bitterly hates. In addition, he had to support him with a series of demagogic statements. In addition, he had to postpone and rearrange his own sched-In addition, for three weeks and more his press conferences, public pronouncements and general publicity were all subordinated to Mr. Lewis upon whom the limeight played incessantly-and still All of which was gall and wormwood to Mr. Murray, who is a puny type compared to Mr. Lewis, wholly dependent for prestige and position upon the unprecedentedly expensive and elaborate publicity and promotion agencies which the CIO has built up around him.

IT IS the considered opinion of this reporter that the rivalries of the present-day labor leaders are a basic cause for the great strikes, with which the nation has been afflicted and for those that are now threatened. If, it is argued, one leader successfully strikes, gaining or economic justification.

A taxi driver, Ronald Schmoll, told police Grant and his wife were about to enter his cab. Suddenly the man backed off. Schmoll said, drew the revolver and felled Mrs. Grant with one shot, firing two more into her prostrate body.

Mrs. Grant, divorced last March from her first husband, was pronounced dead at a hospital with slugs above the heart and left hip. Her four children range in age from 16 to 12 years.

Detectives said Grant left his wife's home last Saturday and took up residence in a hotel. He accompanied Mrs. Grant from the coffee shop where she worked shortly before the slaying.

Auto Executives Speak To Truckers

Bantam Car Officials Guest Speak ers At Truck Dinner Meeting Monday Night

Walter Cartweight and Ted Craig, executives of the American Bantam Car and Truck company were the speakers Monday night December 16 when the Lawrence County Chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck association held its monthly dinner in the Castleton hotel.

Both of the men talked on the safety program of the American Trucking association, of the proposed truck legislation, due in 1947. and of such technical details of truck and trailer construction as tandem axles, road impact, road flexibility and the like.

A number of guests were present from Allegheny county and engaged n a discussion of cargo insurance. In the discussion it was said that cargo insurance as presently written is not comprehensive in its coverage and the sugestion has been advanced that the PMTA become its own insurance carrier. A resolution approving this idea was passed by the Lawrence County

Hundreds Fail To Cast Ballots

Some Thousands Of Names Of County Voters Being Removed From Rolls

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Voting is sometimes referred to by political orators as "that priceless heritage won by the blood and tears of the founding fathers". Or words to that effect. It is a priceless heritage and it is something Americans should treasure but there are a lot of Lawrence County voters who seem to care little for their voting

A. Lewis Conn, chief clerk to the Permanent Registration bureau is removing from the files, the names of all votters who have not voted in two years last past. With only 65 precincts done he has taken out 5,-427 names and there are 34 precincts yet to check.

Some of them have died, some were ill on election days, others were out of the city, but this would account for comparitively few. The most of them seem to be folks who vote only when some particular office or some particular candidate is on the ballot.

In a great many instances they are the folks who stand around street corners or sit in barbershops telling you what is wrong with the country and how the politicians are ruining us.

It has always seemed to us that the vote was one of the few things n this country in which the individual had absolute control. To refuse to vote is to invite incompe-

Salvation Army To Distribute Toys

Wednesday morning, the Salvation Army has secured from the Department of Public Assistance the names of 300 children whose families are in need of gifts of toys and fruit for the youngsters.

Mothers of these children are beng contacted by Captain Thelma Dundon, head of the local corps, and may select toys from those on display. Each child also gets an apple, an orange, and a popcorn

On Friday evening, the children will present their Christmas program, and have their Christmas party, attended by a Santa Claus who will distribute gifts to all of those present.

Four Musicians Of New Castle Are In Greenville Symphony

Formed this year, the Greenville Symphony orchestra includes four musicians from New Castle among its eighty members.

Joseph F. Replogle, director of the New Castle High school orchestra and band; John Paton, director of the Washington Junior high orchestra and band; and Tom Wiand and Don Levine, both students at Senior High and the local members. All are cellists except Don.

Directed by William Loessel, noted violinist of Pittsburgh, the orchestra has many concerts booked, and has entirely sold out its membership. Most of the members are professional musicians. Tom and Don, student musicians, attended the National Music camp at Interlochen. Michigan, this summer.

Let's cross these rivers before we come to 'em!

RIVER development and flood control rank high on the list of America's post-war plans. Many of these projects call for dams which may also produce electric power.

This involves issues that should be discussed and settled now-rivers to cross in advance.

Many of us in the power business have had a long experience with river-side plants, in the production of both steam-generated and hydroelectric power. In fairness to all taxpayers and in the interest of the many million users of electricity, we therefore outline our convictions and suggestions on river development and flood control.

When a dam is proposed, all of its purposes should be clearly defined in the legislation-flood control, navigation, irrigation or power. And just as clearly, the benefit to the people affected should justify the

2 If power is produced at government-built dams, it should be sold to existing power systems, without special privilege or discrimination. This will save the expensive duplication of transmission facilities, help to co-ordinate the entire power supply of each region, and assure its widest possible use at the lowest practical rates.

3 Any savings made possible by this plan should be passed along to the users of electricity, under regulation by State Commissions or other properly constituted regulatory bodies. This will assure all the benefits of river development and hydropower without the added expense of government going into business and competing with its own citizens.

4 Government in any business endangers all business. Government in business escapes many normal business obligations, enjoys free mail, pays no federal taxes and few, if any, other taxes, little or no interest. If government can sell electricity on this basis, it can sell shoes, groceries, automobiles, or anything else the same way. Government may properly regulate business in the public interest but should not operate business. It should not play in the game for which it makes the rules. In other words, government should not try to be referee and quarterback at the same time!

He added: "We will approach the thole matter in a judicial frame of nind. This is a very serious prob-

Michener's note to caution, expressed in an interview, came in the vake of a warning by Rep. Lewis (R) Ohio, chairman of a special Re publican committee named to stud repeal, that it was "neither wise nor desirable" to act precipitously in declaring hostilities formally ended It served to emphasize the probability of lengthy delay, stretching into months and perhaps years, before congress can safely repeal all of the president's emergency powers. Michener said Republicans on his committee agreed unanimously with the action taken by the Democratic ate repeal of 46 war-enacted statutes, largely of a minor nature. The house voted July 27 to repeal them, but the senate did not have time to act, as congress adjourned five days for years he felt like the bones in his legs were broken. This was due to muscular rheumatism. His muscles were swollen and his legs so stiff and sore that he couldn't walk without limping. He was in misery. Recently he started taking RHU-AID and says the feeling like his bones were broken disappeared the second day. The swelling and stiffness has gone from his muscles; now he can walk without suffering and says he feels like a new man. RHU-AID contains Three Great Medical Ingredients which go right to the very source of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! fields of Texas.

A Man Felt Like His Bones Were Broken, Due to Rheumatism

Because of these shortages we have been unable to increase our distribution capacity at a sufficient rate to keep up with the ever increasing demand for gas. If you have been trying to buy an automobile, soap chips, white shirts or other scarce ·items you will readily understand our position.

In case of a cold wave the gas shortage could become critical. Cold weather doubles the gas consumption.

During cold weather domestic users can help to prevent gas pressures from dropping to dangerous levels by conserving this precious fuel. So use gas wisely . . . use it sparingly. We have listed some suggestions in this advertisement. If everyone follows these suggestions it will do much to prevent an acute shortage. Will you help?

A PPOINTMENT of Professor Gordon L. Trembley, formerly A faculty of the Pennsylvania State College, as chief aquatic biologist of the board of fish commissioners has been announced by Commissioner of State Fishers C. A. French. Professor Trembley has assumed supervision of the program of stream and lake management, based on a scientific study of all public fishing waters in Pennsylvania, which the board will launch next spring. The program, involving a survey of lakes, ponds, and streams, will require several years to complete and has two purposes: (1.) To improve fishing in public waters, and (2) To provide for the most efficient use of the millions
